BOOK OF THE WEEK

Pip and Egg

Alex Latimer and David Litchfield

Pip and Egg are like two peas in a pod. But as their friendship grows, so do they - for Pip this means growing roots, but Egg grows wings, and she can't wait to use them.

Though Pip wishes he can follow Egg on her adventures, his roots are strong. So he watches his friend fly away.

But true friends always find their way back to each other.

Dear Parents and families,
Another eventful week for so many different and varied reasons. We are all enjoying the run-up to our Christmas celebrations and events and as yet, all looks set to go ahead as planned. However, we have all been very mindful of the issues that many people have been facing across our peninsula and beyond following Storm Arwen and the very cold weather. I sent an information leaflet about help and support that can be accessed by families who need it earlier this week and have attached it here again. If there is anything that you feel we could help and support you with please do get in touch.

As always, take care and stay safe,
Gill

CLASS CHAMPIONS

HUGE Congratulations to this week's Class Champions:

Hill Top Class: Amber - for always being so kind and caring. You have done lots of lovely acts of kindness this week. You are flying with your phonics and I love how excited you are to read to any adults or friends, as well as writing some super stories!

Dove Class: Charlie - You're a quiet and modest mastermind. This week you've wowed us across the board in everything you've done. Mrs Wood and I have not stopped talking about how proud and impressed we are with you for your phonic ability to decode words, your super speed with your number bonds and the cherry on top is that you're always a delight!

Wainwright Class: Oscar – for being the most amazing role model in our school. You epitomize the ethos of our school!

Whoops-a-Daisy Angel Nursery – Reception

Nursery and Reception present...Whoops-a-Daisy Angel! The magical Christmas story following a loveable, but clumsy, angel.

She has a very important job to do, to spread the news about the arrival of a very special baby. A story full of love, music and the joy of Christmas.

Please sing and dance along with us!

We hope you enjoy.

Orienteering – Wainwright Class

The children have had a fantastic 2-weeks testing out their orienteering skills in Cartmel Park woods. Last week they successfully navigated two set courses through the woods and did really well orientating their maps to find out where they and the controls were located. Great to see! And, Storm Arwen couldn't stop us either! This week we didn't use the woods at Cartmel Park however, Mrs Bell set two, very challenging course around the racecourse and surrounding fields. The children really found this quite tough but showed great resilience and determination throughout. A particular mention must go to James and Zachary R-B as they were the first pair to complete the two courses last week and the only pair to complete the first and the majority of the second course this week. Well done boys; great map reading and navigation skills displayed!

School Lunches – if you are wanting your child to have school meals, please ensure menu selections are made via ParentPay no later than 10pm on a Thursday evening for the following week.
