Dear Parents, Children and Families,

Following the recent passing of the Queen, I just wanted to let you know that I completed the book of condolence in St John the Baptist Church as well as the on-line book of condolence, made available on the Buckingham Palace website, on behalf of the pupils, staff, governors and parents of our school.

A selection of messages from our children were also recorded in each. I am sure that the messages will be made public at some point and if so, please do take a look.

The Palace website says that a selection of messages will be passed onto members of the Royal Family and may be held in the Royal Archives for posterity.

As always, take care and stay safe,

Gill

BOOK OF THE WEEK

The Midnight Gang – David Walliams

Welcome to the Midnight Gang! Midnight is the time when all children are fast asleep, except of course for...the Midnight Gang. That is when their adventures are just beginning.

When Tom gets hit on the head by a cricket ball, he finds himself at Lord Funt Hospital, and is greeted by a terrifying-looking porter. Things go from bad to worse when he meets the wicked matron in charge of the children's ward But Tom is about to embark on the most thrilling journey of a lifetime!

The Midnight Gang tells an extraordinarily heart-warming and, of course, funny story of five children on a hospital ward and on a quest for adventure!

Hill Top Class

This week and last week we have been learning 'All About Me', we have done some beautiful self-portraits looking carefully at features of our faces. This week we have looked at families and how all families can look different. We have created some amazing family portraits, which we are excited to display in our

Dove Class

Dove Class have been busy settling into our new class and routines. We have enjoyed learning and looking at plants in science and looking at where we live in the world and the continent song, which I'm sure if you ask your child will be able to give you a lovely rendition! We've been so impressed with all the children and how seamlessly they've settled into their new year groups.

Just a quick reminder for Reception to Y6 parents, please ensure your child's Nasal Flu Vaccination consent form is brought back to school no later than Monday 26th September. Even if you do not consent to the vaccination being given, the form still needs to be completed and handed into school. Many thanks, Admin.
