BOOK OF THE WEEK

This beautiful hardback Bible storybook for 3-6 year olds takes children on a journey from the garden of Eden to God's perfect new creation. It is a gospel presentation that focuses on the significance of the temple curtain. God said "because of your sin you can't come in", but the moment the curtain tore in two, everything changed...

Celebrating Easter

On Thursday 30th March, the whole school presented and performed our Easter Service to families and friends. They spoke beautifully, shared why and how we celebrate Easter and sang wonderful songs to celebrate this time of year. Hilltop Class got to showcase their new life of growing beans, Dove Class shared 'new life' and reflected on how the life cycle of a butterfly can symbolise parts of The Easter Story, Bluebird Class presented posters about how Easter is celebrated around the world and Wainwright read poems and reflections about victory and life.

On Friday 31st March, Wainwright Class had prepared a scavenger hunt for Dove Class with clues hidden all around the playground. The whole school has also designed their own Easter eggs which were then chopped into pieces, which they then had to find in order to piece it back together and trade it in for a chocolate egg.
